Ovolo Group Expands to Bali

Ovolo has today announced the purchase of the Citadines Kuta Beach Bali, the group's first property outside of Hong Kong and Australia, representing its vision to become a truly global hospitality company with particular focus on South East Asia, Australia, New Zealand, United States and United Kingdom.

The 194-room property consists of 182 studio rooms, nine one-bedroom suites and three two-bedroom suites, an all-day dining restaurant, rooftop pool & bar, gym and conferencing facilities.

In early 2020, Ovolo will announce its future plans for this property in which it will be reimagined to be inline with Ovolo Group's ethos and philosophies.

Commenting on the acquisition, Girish Jhunjhnuwala, Founder & CEO of Ovolo Group said, "This acquisition demonstrates our vision to become a truly global hospitality company, offering guests unrivalled effortless experiences across our hotels, bars and restaurants." Girish continued, "We look forward to being able to reinvent this hotel and it's food and drink concepts in true Ovolo style, bringing a fresh take on hospitality to Bali."

Ovolo Group officially takes over Citadines Kuta Beach on November 1, 2019.
