

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Let your inner Latina out at Te Quiero Mucho!

[November 2021, Hong Kong] Over the last year, Te Quiero Mucho (TQM) has undergone many exciting changes – the space, the menu, and the Head Chef. But the one thing that has and will always stay the same are their unshakeable Latin roots. So, in true Mexican fashion, TQM are putting their all into giving guests a fiesta reminiscent of the vibrant streets of their homeland.

To spice up the weekend, join the biggest, baddest Latin party in Hong Kong, hosted by TQM. Once a month, guests can get ready to enjoy a night of grooving, salsa (the food; but most importantly the dance), and of course, tacos and margaritas. With a live DJ providing the Latin beats and night promising good company and food, all guests need to bring are themselves and an appetite – for both a feast and a fiesta.

The first party lands on 4 December. The Feast & Fiesta ticket includes a 4-course dinner curated by Head Chef Alejandro Ramirez Perez and 4 hours of free-flow drinks for HK$900. Alternatively, if guests want to enjoy more of the dancing, the Fiesta ticket includes 2 hours of free-flow drinks and snacks for only HK$400.

If dancing and partying is best reserved for special occasions, then guests should join TQM's New Year's Eve Latin Party on 31 December instead. To help wash away the Hong Kong backdrop and immerse guests into the Latin ambience, in addition to a live DJ, professional tango dancers will also make an appearance on the night and join in on the party.

Similarly to the 4 December event, the Feast & Fiesta ticket includes dinner and 4 hours of free-flow drinks for HK$900, while the Fiesta ticket includes 2 hours of free-flow drinks and snacks for only HK$400. It'll be a night unlike any other, allowing guests to conquer all their senses, with music, aromas, colours, movement, and flavours all working in harmony.

Whether it's learning new moves, or showing them off, TQM invites all guests to let loose and join them on the dance floor. Tickets for 4 December can be purchased here and tickets for 31 December can be purchased here.
