Ovolo Steps Up and Once Again Takes Quarantine to New Levels with Quarantine Concierge 3.0

[Hong Kong, 26 January 2022] Ovolo Hotels' new refined quarantine offering places physical and mental health at the forefront. Mind and body are sure to feel well-loved with Ovolo's Quarantine MasterClass programme. This three-part programme features daily complimentary classes from different local businesses, access to personally contact the partners to arrange 1-on-1 classes, and amazing post-quarantine offers.

Mondays bring calming meditative yoga classes from Mindful Studio, Tuesdays promise high-energy and fun Bollywood dance workouts from Ek 2 Three, Wednesdays dial it back with relaxing singing bowl sessions from iLiving, Thursdays showcase a rotation of HIIT, Sculpt, and Mat Pilates with Coco & The Sun, Fridays ring in breathwork and meditation sessions by Art of Living, and Saturdays pick up the pace with intensive sweat workouts in the form of PURE x Ovolo collaborative classes. With something almost every day, guests can feel more at ease knowing their physical and mental wellness is taken care of while in quarantine. Upon leaving, Ovolo remains by guests' sides with an exclusive one-month complimentary membership with ClassPass, allowing guests to unwind and find some zen post-quarantine.

Without a doubt the heart is warmed through the stomach, so naturally food continues to be a big deal at Ovolo. Quarantine Concierge 3.0 sees a bolder, better and more balanced dining program with more options available. There's something for everyone on the new and improved quarantine menu, which offers 28 options a week. Each day brings a new vegan or low carb option, a vegetarian option, a meat or seafood option, and a hearty and nourishing salad bowl loaded with crisp greens, vibrant veg and a protein. Baked treats, such as lemon and blueberry muffins and Basque burnt cheesecakes, top it off and sweeten each day, while savoury happy hour snacks like camembert fritters and mini aloo samosas satiate the salt crave.

Ovolo's Executive Chef, Raul Tronco Calahorra, says "our menu revamp is all about balance, and we have worked hard to give guests four different options to choose from each day, whether they want something lighter and healthier, something more indulgent and filling, or a vegetarian option.”

In preparation for the summer season, Ovolo Hotels has gone a step further to ensure more rooms are available to accommodate larger families who wish to quarantine together. These additional connecting rooms will include clever tweaks for more comfortable living and sleeping arrangements. For the ultimate quarantine experience, Ovolo Southside’s Rockstar Suites get even better with brand new TVs and mini fridges. Additional amenities are also available for rental, such as larger fridges for storing 21-days’ worth of snacks, baby food and even wine.

Guest experience continues to be at the forefront of Quarantine Concierge 3.0. While Wednesday Social Sessions – Zoom calls between Ovolo and hotel guests – continue to be the perfect mid-week socialising break, Ovolo is also partnering with local brands to host weekend activities, giving the weekday workers something to get excited over on their down time. These include activities like wine tasting classes by Howard’s Folly Wine, bespoke perfume workshops by Esscentric, and more. Ovolo have also earmarked each and every major holiday like Chinese New Year, Mid-Autumn, and more, as well as personal milestones such as reaching 10k steps each day or landing on the last day of quarantine.

Sonesh Mool, Group Director of Brand Experience, says “Social Sessions has always been a great way to connect with our guests – seeing their faces helps create the personal bond that we’re all about. In fact, many guests have formed new friendships during their quarantine with group meet-ups, even a couple getting engaged post-quarantine, and old friends being reunited once they are out.

When seeking a no-stress, enriching quarantine experience, there is no other choice but Ovolo’s Quarantine Concierge 3.0, available at both Ovolo Southside and Ovolo Central starting 31 January 2022.
