Quarantine Concierge 7.0 – For Kids!

Big Kids Package

[Hong Kong, 25 April 2022] Ovolo Hotels, an award-winning boutique designer hotel collection, has recently announced the release of their latest quarantine accommodation offering - Quarantine Concierge 7.0. Since Hong Kong's quarantine duration has been reduced to a short seven days, Ovolo has celebrated this the best way they know how – with a refreshed offer and even more flexibility.

With the summer season approaching, Ovolo have once again elevated their offer, now to be even more accommodating for children after noticing a significant increase in the number of families returning to Hong Kong. Incorporating this 'Sweet Child O'Mine' package will allow parents to extend their family adventure for a short 7 day staycation.

The Sweet Child O'Mine package ensures all children will be entertained after so parents can kick back, relax, and enjoy a stress-free happy hour to the fullest. Ovolo offers 2 packages: one for the little ones between ages 3-6 ($340) and another for bigger kids between ages 7-11 ($480).

For the little ones, the add-on will include a foldable cardboard play area which they can play and nap in, but also an area for parents to hide from them in, various off screen activities including colouring sheets, spot the difference and many more puzzles, and a recommended Netflix kiddies list. For the big kids, the package will include a table top cardboard model to build, decorate and name, a 7-day advent countdown, various off screen activities including colouring sheets, join the dots, origami and many more puzzles, and a recommended Netflix kiddies list.

In addition to the Sweet Child O'Mine package, Ovolo has even gone a step further to add the Family Suite and Family Suite Plus rooms in Ovolo Southside and the Connecting Room Suites in Ovolo

Central to accommodate these larger families who wish to quarantine together over the summer season.

In Ovolo Southside, the Family Suite sits on a high floor and boasts 2 queen sized beds and a sofa bed for a more comfortable sleeping arrangement. The open floor plan also includes an adjustable coffee/dining table, and a domestic style fridge to ensure all snacks and wine remains chilled throughout the stay, adjustable Yogi chairs, an ottoman with a foldable side table, four wall mounted TV's, a walking pad, and more. This makes the room the perfect set up for a family of up to five.

The Family Suite Plus is best suited for a family of up to six. It is also situated on a high floor and boasts 2 queen sized beds, a sofa bed, and 2 Hollywood single beds that can be pushed together to convert into a queen bed. The room also comes with an adjustable coffee/dining table, a domestic style fridge, four wall mounted TV's, a microwave, and more. With plenty of space, it ensures everyone in the family will still like each other by the time quarantine ends.

Meanwhile, the Connecting Room Suite in Ovolo Central is suitable for families of up to three. In addition to a rockin' view, each suite also has ownership of an entire private floor - fitted with all of life's essentials from a king sized bed, a sofa bed, study desks, kitchenette/bar areas with a cocktail set & a drinks cabinet, and separate sitting and dining spaces.

Josie Bristow, the Assistant Director of Marketing, says, "It is our privilege to accommodate these returning families the best that we can. Despite quarantine being shortened to 7 days, we understand how difficult it can be for families to be constantly confined in one space. With our family friendly suites, which include clever tweaks for a more comfortable living and sleeping arrangement, together with the Sweet Child O'Mine package, we're looking to provide a wonderful experience for not only the parents, but the entire family."

Ovolo Southside and Ovolo Central are already the leading hotels on the designated quarantine hotel list, by providing guests with exceptional service and the freedom of choice throughout their mandatory stay. With the recent launch of Quarantine Concierge 7.0 and now the Sweet Child O'Mine package and the added family suites, they are truly transforming the compulsory period into an enjoyable staycation with all the inclusions.

Additionally, with the announcement of Ovolo's exclusive partnership with ClassPass, quarantine guests can experience the platform complimentary for two weeks complete with 20 credits and 50% off all classes on their trial. Some classes are even kid-friendly!

As always, Ovolo is looking forward to welcoming international travellers to Hong Kong with open arms – under their PPE gear of course.
